TALKS TO MINISTERS ABOUT THE ELECTION.

Father Coffey Says Aid of Pulpit and Press Is Needed to Reform St. Louis.

THEIR INFLUENCE AT POLLS.

Political Corruption and Suprema cy of Ring Rule Due to Moral Cowardice of the Public, He Says.

At the invitation of the Christian Min-Isters' Alliance the Reverend Father James T. Coffey adressed that body yesterday at No. 1522 Locust street. The subject of his discourse was "Municipal Reform." All of the Christian ministers of the city and many leading members of their congregations were

Father Coffey showed the relation besaying that common sense processes were as needful as the application of scientific methods. He declared that it was only beating the air to take a stand against the effects of political rottenness and then fall to get at the source of municipal cor-

The remedy for these evils, he said, lies with the pulpit, the newspapers and the voters, who must elect competent men to fill important offices. He said, in part:

"The fossilized preachers of the word of "The fossilized preachers of the word of God must arouse themselves, shelve their supposedly up-to-date scientific sermon books and guay all vital questions from original sources. They must get out and mingle with the great active masses and ccase spending so many precious hours in the pariors and libraries of the case loving classes. They must preach as Jesus Christ preached in the plain and forcible language of the people and tell the truth in season and out of season, no matter whom it may hart. If this were done concertedly and persistently, how different would be our d out of season, no matter whom it t. If this were done concertedly sistently, how different would be litteal stuation in St. Louis to-day. REPUBLIC HAS SPOKEN OUT.

REPUBLIC HAS SPOKEN OUT.

"Let the newspapers stop throwing mud for party gain only and raise their mighty voices against all vicious characters on all party tickets and against the boshes who would dare foist their filth on a patient and long-suffering people. Let them speak out as The Republic has spoken out in the present campaign against the brazen publicans who insist upon having the party tickets besmitched with their unclean records. The people will refuse to support papers, which, fearing to honestly cry down unclean and disreputable candidates for public office, would lead us back again to the fearful reign of Ziegenheinism. "It may be good politics (in the worst sense of that term) to say nothing of the machine-created nominees who are unfit to conduct our public affairs, but it is certainly not patriotism: The papers that dare to be silent about disreputable men, who seek our suffrage in this present crisis, are guilty of a great crime against our free institutions and must meet the fate of all traitorous and corrupt agencies. It is a notorfoous fact that two leading papers in this city have failed to show up the white-sepulchres of the Republican ticket simply because they stand for the machine and all that it grinds out—the rotten and nasty offscouring of humanity as well as the decent and respectable element of citizenship.

"When our newspapers, controlled by men whose patriotism cannot be subsidized by the beer-barons and whisky-kings of this community, will make a united and determined attack upon the rum-hells-the in-lquitous training schools of aimost all our sewer politicians and the noxious breeding-places of all the cabals against public decency and public honesty, when this comes to pass, and not until then, may we expect some kind of substantial municipal reform.

"The public conscience has long been dormant-it must be quickened again into new life and energy. A full, and fearless and averaged for on the solution of the soluti The public conscience has long been dormant—it must be quickened again into new life and energy. A full, and fearless enforcement of the existing laws regulating vice and crime is necessary to bring this about. I fear, we will look in vain for this much desired change, while our courts are sought after by men whose worst qualification is not that they are inferior lawyers, but that they are dyed-in-the-wood politicians, who carry about with them a strong odor of the rum-shop and the brothel. CORRUPT COURTS
BRING DISORDER.

"As long as we shall have judges on the bench who trifie with the sanctity of the law, who openly protect the fixing of juries by political bosses, who associate with drunkards, gamblers prostitutes and thieves, the very foundations of public order and morality are jeopardized. Public conscience is polluted and demoralized, and the people are driven to lynch law and anarchy to protect themselves and their homes. We have plenty of law for the suppression of vice and the punishment of crime; but incompetent and bad judges have dared to clog the wheels of justice and to make our criminal courts the jest of the lawless element of this city.

"Look at the conduct of the Central Police Court and the Three C's Court since the coming into power of the Ziegenhein gang! Men have been seated there who openly boast of their affiliations with the political whisky-soaks of the sium and the soiled-doves of the half-world. The rising generations of voters among our young men see and know all this; they see the laws dragged into the mire of ring politics and trampled upon by those whose sworn duty it is to uphold and enforce them; they even see, on the eve of this momentous election so filled with fate for the upbuilding of a new St. Louis, they see our Supreme Court made, the pupper of a notorious political ring that has decreed the deliverance of all prostitutors of the ballot. And seeing all this, they soon learn to make light of justice and to defy sil lawful authority. No wonder that the young men of St. Louis find it more conducive to their political welfare to place themselves in the ranks of the hoodlum Indians rather than to seek membership among the law-abiding and self-respecting element of citizenship.

"I do not think it is our wormly lax sys-

PUBLIC COWARDICE TO CLAME.

"I do not think it is our wofmily lax system of primaries, I do not think it is the Neshit law, nor Ziegenheinism, nor Butlerism, nor any other political ism that underlies all our municipal troubles for the past quarter of a century; but I am thoroughly convinced it is our own cowardice, our criminal neglect to stir up the public conscience, our shameful hesitancy in attacking and driving out of our municipal politics alcohol and its cohorts. I am thoroughly convinced further that is the rumruled and hidebound machine newspaper, and lesstly, but not least, the low moral character and drunken, beastly habits and associations of many of the men who are elected to preside ever our courts of justice.
"Awake, the ministers force the news-PUBLIC COWARDICE TO BLAME.

"Awake the ministers, force the news "Awake the ministers, force the newspapers to a policy of decency, and put only clean men and able lawyers in our control then and then only, may we expect a new era of political regeneration. Give us civil officers like Folk, Bishop, Hancock and Maroney, give us more Judges like Ryan, Fisher, Douglas and Tracy, give us law-makers like the members of the present City Council, and in a short time most of our very serious political ills will have a speedy termination."

Thoughts for Every Gift Need.

NLY a matter of fifty days to Christmas-and time flies. Turn your thoughts here. Note the splen. did readiness all through the store-ready for Christmas, ready for more immediate needs in the matter of weddings, anniversaries, party prizes and what not. Think seriously of the unparalleled diamond opportunity this week offers you. Price and early selection are the two undodgeable reasons for purchasing now.

The Elegance of Jewelry, considered from the separate standpoints of art, purpose. craftsmanship, is exhibited nowhere in America as here. See tray after tray, counter after counter filled with treasures of brain and skill-and see as nowhere else prices that almost put to rout the riches of sentiment.

It's a severely practical store that can print a list like this:

Beautiful Rings, $5.00 to $500.00 Scarf Pins, $2.00 to $600.00 Pendants and Lockets, $5.00 to $275.00 Bracelets, $8.50 to $465.00 Watch Chains $9.00 to $160.00 Watch Fobs, $6.00 to $122.00 Lorgnettes, $35.00 to $300.00 Lorgnette Chains, $10.00 to $120.00 Emblem Charms, $4.00 to $135.00 Hat Pins, $2.50 to $100.00 Cuff Buttons, $2.50 to $125.00 Collar Buttons, $1.00 to $32.00 Purses, $25.00 to $550.00 Vinaigrettes, $15.50 to $225.00 Children's Rings, $1.00 to $10.00

Of course some are plain gold—even up almost to the highest prices; and others are set with precious stones—even down almost to the starting prices.

At best there's but a suggestion of immenseness of variety. Realize it and we have scored a point. It leads to another point: prices must be lowest in such a store.

City Counselor Bates, after looking up the law on the subject, has given it as his opinion that more than one coffin may be placed in a single grave, providing the top piaced in a single grave, providing the top coffin is six feet below the surface of the earth.

The opinion was sought by Health Commissioner Starkloff, who discovered that several of the local cemeteries were following the practice of placing more than one coffin in a grave without first requesting the permission of the health authorities.

The cemetery management claimed that by so doing they were benefiting poor persons who could not afford to purchase a
